

Eleanna is a director for stage and film.

Being Greek and living in London she is proud to say that she combines both English & Greek elements in her work , a melting pot or a hybrid of both cultures.

In January 2020 she went to Tinos island in Greece, to work on the next project of Yorgos Lanthimos with Emma Stone & Damien Bonnard, which is going to be screened this May 2022 at the Greek National Opera. She was the 3rd AD & assistant to Emma Stone.
